

OCASI
ONTARIO COUNCIL OF AGENCIES SERVING IMMIGRANTS
In collaboration with Toronto Public Health and the Toronto Newcomer Office

Invites you to:

Promoting the Mental Health of Newcomer Clients

September 18, 2017
9:00 AM-4:00 PM

At YMCA Central Grosvenor St
20 Grosvenor St.
Toronto, ON M4Y 2V5

This one day symposium will address the following questions:

- What is mental health promotion?
- Why is it so important for agencies and front-line workers serving newcomers to promote client mental health?
- What are some strategies that settlement agencies and front-line workers can use to promote client mental health?

Please register for this free event if you:

- Are a front-line worker, manager, or executive director at an agency serving newcomer clients in Ontario

The symposium will also serve as a launch for OCASI's Mental Health Promotion Guide for Agencies Serving Immigrants and Refugees in Ontario, a document that will help agencies and front-line workers develop policies and practices that promote refugee and newcomer clients' mental health.

Registration deadline: Friday September 8th, 2017 (or once registration fills up).

Register NOW to secure your spot. Space is limited.

Please note that OCASI is unable to cover travel and accommodation for participants at this time.
