

Queen's University is conducting research with Young Mothers in Canada to better understand the circumstances and experiences of young women who chose to get pregnant

Research Participants Wanted

Are you a young mother who had a child as a teenager?

We want to hear from you.

Please contact for more information: Sherri Dutton

at

13sld4@queensu.ca

or

613-533-6000 ext. 79494

You are eligible to participate if:

- You gave birth to your child when you were between the ages of 15-19
- You are currently between the ages of 16-24
- You were living in Canada for all or part of your pregnancy